

Professional Learning Committee

AGENDA

December 11, 2008
Maple Street Training Rooms

Discuss Chapter 1 Snapshot Reflections

Discuss the paradigm shift: professional development needs based on student learning needs

Frame Your Thinking of Chapter 2

January 16 Districtwide Professional Development Day
Logistics / Catalog /Q & A

What We're Reading this Year

Designing Professional Development for Change, A Guide for Improving Classroom Instruction by James Bellanca

*Designing Professional Development for Change, A
Guide for Improving Classroom
Instruction* by James Bellanca

Chapter 1: "Snapshot Reflection"

As a review, record "snapshots" from your reading that are important / key points.

Topic: Why Change?

--	--	--	--

Topic: The "Sit and Git" Model

--	--	--	--

Topic: Development vs. Change

--	--	--	--

Topic: The Change Process

--	--	--	--

“Frame your Thinking”

Chapter 2: Designing Professional Development for Change by James Bellanca

Section	My Thoughts	Colleague's Name and Thoughts	Colleague's Name and Thoughts	Colleague's Name and Thoughts
The three Bears & A Win-Win Start Section (p. 8-11)
Student-Learning Needs & Learning-Centered Assessments (p. 11-12)
Wants a Sand Trap & The Seven Principles (p. 12-13)
Changing the Paradigm & New Roles (p. 14-16)

1. Record your thoughts about critical messages from your section in Chapter 2.
2. Then, at the specified time, find at least 2 people that read a different section and at least 1 person that read the same section. Collect the thoughts of other colleagues and record their thinking on your chart.
3. Please be prepared to discuss the information that you have gathered.