Check this box if you are filing an update to a previously filed questionnaire.

(The law requires that you file an updated completed questionnaire with the appropriate filing authority not later than September 1 of the year for which an activity described in Section 176.006(a), Local Government Code, is pending and not later than the 7th business day after the date the originally filed questionnaire becomes incomplete or inaccurate.)

3

Describe each affiliation or business relationship with an employee or contractor of the local governmental entity who makes recommendations to a local government officer of the local governmental entity with respect to expenditure of money.

Anchorage Press Plays may receive an order via phone, mail, email, or website for play scripts (small books which contain the text of theatrical plays) or theatrical books. If a school decides to stage a presentation of the play script, Anchorage Press Plays serves as the playwright's agent for collecting performance royalty fees. An order for play scripts, performance royalty permission, or books may be placed by a teacher of an individual school or through the school district. There is no direct contact other than the order relating to these purchases. Yearly, Anchorage Press Plays participates as an Exhibitor at the Texas Educational Theatre Association conference displaying the books we publish and talks with teachers from Texas.

Describe each affiliation or business relationship with a person who is a local government officer and who appoints or employs a local government officer of the local governmental entity that is the subject of this questionnaire.

Anchorage Press Plays deals with the teacher, school, or school district only when they initiate an inquiry or order with our company or in association with promoting our books at theatre conferences.
