What—Where is Family Connection???

Family Connections is an internet based program for high school students and parents in the Frisco ISD. The goal of this program is to increase student awareness of their post-secondary options from colleges / technical colleges, to scholarships, to develop a 4-Year Graduation Plan of Study, and finally to post secondary career choices.

There is a student version and a parent account version for each student. The parent version is set up to give parents access to information on colleges and technical colleges (from locations to finances), to give a listings of scholarships, to view your student's career plans (or career considerations), and to be able to view your student's 4-year graduation plan of study in high school. If parents have more than one student in high school they may become "linked" to both of their students. This allows parents to have one account but gives them the ability to view each student's individual choices.

Please note that each high school has a different location on their webpage for the link to Family Connection accounts.

Frequently Asked Questions

I can't remember my password.

How can I get in?

Click the link on the sign in page that states "If you forgot your password, click here for help." Enter your e-mail address and click the "Reset Password" button to receive a new, temporary password. If you did not register with an email address you will need to contact either Beth Jennings at CTEC or your home campus high school counselor to reset your password.

I entered my e-mail address and password correctly, but I still can't sign in.

Family Connections stores a "cookie" on your computer when you access the site. This cookie is a small file that enables Family Connections to identify your session. You must allow this cookie to be written in order to use Family Connections. If you have configured your web browser to decline cookies, you must change this setting before signing into Family Connections.

I changed my e-mail address. How do I sign in?

When signing in, enter the e-mail address that you used when you registered for Family Connections (even if you no longer receive e-mails at that address). Once you have signed in, click "My Profile." Most of the high schools allow you to edit this information, if so click the "Edit" link and enter your new information. If you are not allowed to edit your information you will need to contact your home campus high school counselor or Beth Jennings at CTEC to make the change for you.
