

... QR Codes are invading everywhere? QR Codes are the silly looking little box codes popping up on product packaging, magazine ads, coupons, even store-fronts in the mall! If you have a Smart Phone (or iPod Touch with a camera and wi-fi) you can download a free QR Code reader, take a picture of the code, then it will take you directly to a website with more information about the item.