

Washington Post Recognition

Congratulations to the students, faculty and staff of Centennial High School on their recent recognition as one of the nation's Top Schools as identified by the Washington Post newspaper. Top high schools were identified based on a formula that calculates the level of rigor schools present to their students through Advanced Placement college-level classes, performance on AP exams and graduation rates. This is the first year that the Washington Post has so identified high schools as Top Performing Schools; prior to 2010-11, CHS had been recognized by Newsweek magazine for three consecutive years as one of the top performing 1,500 high schools in the nation. CONGRATULATIONS TITANS!
