

CELEBRITY CHEF VISITS CURTSINGER

Curtis Stone Visit

Curtis Stone, also known as the "Take Home Chef", and now the chef on the TODAY Show, visited Curtsinger on September 3rd! Our very own fourth grade teacher, Mrs. Katie Henry, won the recent "Girl's Night In" contest with Curtis Stone. The prize included a special visit from Curtis, cheese making, and a fabulous dinner for Mrs. Henry and three girlfriends.

Curtis arrived with fresh baked cookies for the students and a gorgeous bouquet of flowers for Mrs. Henry. The students surprised Curtis with an awesome "welcome" sign. Mr. Stone visited with the class and enjoyed learning alongside them, before joining them for lunch in the cafeteria. Ms. Henry and Ms. Dill spent the remainder of the day with Mr. Stone and shared a fabulous meal prepared by him that evening. The students were full of excitement to have a celebrity at Curtsinger. The segment will air on the TODAY show on Sept. 10th at 10:00am.

Mrs. Katie Henry won the recent "Girls Night In" contest from the TODAY Show which included a special visit and dinner with Celebrity Chef Curtis Stone!

