

FRISCO HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY

BECAUSE YOU NEED TO KNOW

A note from Ms. Bivins

MARCH 7-13 IS TEEN TECH WEEK!
8 AM EACH MORNING IN THE LIBRARY

Teen Tech Week is a great event sponsored by the American Library Association (ALA). The purpose of the week is to highlight all of the ways technology is used in public and school libraries around the country. This year's theme is:

LEARN. CREATE. SHARE @ YOUR LIBRARY. In keeping with the theme, the FHS Library has a full slate of events scheduled for both students and staff. Below you will find some of the highlights:

Tuesday, March 9: CREATE YOUR OWN AVATAR. If you are not sure what one is, join us and we will give you all the details.

Wednesday, March 10: MORE GOOGLE! Stop by to learn about some of the newest Google Tools.

Thursday, March 11: GET NOOKED! Join us for a demonstration of the Nook Ereader. A representative .

From Barnes and Noble will bring Nooks to demonstrate.

Friday, March 12: Show us your FAVORITE APPS! Bring your tech device and share your favorite apps. See a demo of the Kindle EReader.

A SALUTE TO TEXAS YA AUTHORS

In homage to some great Texas YA authors, below is a list of some of their book titles. I hope you will try a few!

Gail Giles: Shattering Glass; Right Behind You; What Happened to Cass McBride

Cynthia Leitech Smith: Tantalize; Eternal
The Percy Jackson Series by Rick Riordan

I couldn't leave out a list of YA fiction about Texas!

The Sweetheart of Prosper County by Jill Alexander

Soul Enchilada by David Gill

Going Bovine by Libba Bray

 I would lose it,
 I never loved to read. One does not love breathing.
