

Seahawks

Daily Announcements

Thursday, May 24, 2012 –

1. Next week on Tuesday, May 29th and Wednesday, May 30th, the library will be hosting a Third Book Fair! You heard that right! A Third Book Fair! Come get the books you need for summer! The best news is, books are Buy One, Get One Free! Come visit the Book Fair next week!

Wednesday, May 23, 2012 –

1. All Students - due to our 8th Grade "Later" Lunch and 6th/7th Grade Yearbook Signing Parties, we will NOT have a WOW Wednesday Bell Schedule today - we are on Regular Bell Schedule today.
2. 8th Grade Seahawks - don't forget that you can take your lunch with you into the courtyard for a longer lunch time today, and sign each other's yearbooks and 8th Grade "Survivor" t-shirts, donated by the Scoggins PTA. Don't forget to bring your favorite marker with you, Seahawks!
3. 6th and 7th Grade Seahawks - the yearbook signing parties for all 6th and 7th graders will take place during 8th period today. All 6th graders will be in the Practice Gym, and all 7th graders will be in the Competition Gym. We will dismiss by announcement, so go straight to your 8th period class and wait to be dismissed. Please don't forget to bring your favorite markers with you to 8th period today!
4. Next week on Tuesday, May 29th and Wednesday, May 30th, the library will be hosting a Third Book Fair! You heard that right! A Third Book Fair! Come get the books you need for summer! The best news is, books are Buy One, Get One Free! Come visit the Book Fair next week!
5. Attention all "board game club" participants: Please remember that this afternoon's gathering will be the final meeting of our club for the year. If you'd like to join us for the last round of board game fun, please plan on being in the library from 3:45-4:45pm this afternoon!

6. Seahawks, If you are an eighth grader or a 6th or 7th grader going to Vandeventer next year, you are eligible to participate in the courtyard tile project. Eighth grade students or students going to Vandeventer next year, can bring in a permission slip and paint a tile during the last week of school to put out on Scoggins courtyard. The deadline for permission slips has been extended to this Thursday. So if you would like to participate please turn your permission slip in by TOMORROW.

Tuesday, May 22, 2012 –

1. Hey, 8th Grade Seahawks - can you believe it's almost the end of the year? Tomorrow is our annual 8th Grade "Later!" Lunch in the courtyard. All 8th graders can take their lunch into the courtyard and enjoy a longer lunch time. They will also have an opportunity to sign each other's yearbooks, as well as our 8th grade "Survivor" t-shirts, given to us each year by the Scoggins PTA! Plan to bring your favorite marker with you tomorrow for the 8th Grade "Later!" Lunch!
2. 6th and 7th Grade Seahawks - we didn't forget about you - tomorrow, during 8th period, 6th and 7th grade Seahawks will have their yearbook signing parties! Sixth graders will be in the Practice Gym, and seventh graders will be in the Competition Gym. We will dismiss by announcement, so go straight to your 8th period class and wait to be dismissed. Be sure to bring your favorite marker with you to 8th period tomorrow!
3. Next week on Tuesday, May 29th and Wednesday, May 30th, the library will be hosting a Third Book Fair! You heard that right! A Third Book Fair! Come get the books you need for summer! The best news is, books are Buy One, Get One Free! Come visit the Book Fair next week!
4. Like to dance? Want to perform at LHS Football games? Learn to spin flags, rifles and sabers and compete all over Texas as part of the Redhawk Color Guard. Remember to try out for the team tomorrow, May 23rd at 5:00 pm in the Liberty Band Hall. See the web for more info.
5. Try outs for the Vandeventer tennis team will be held on Wednesday May 23rd immediately after school at the Scoggins tennis courts. If you are a 6th or 7th grader who will be attending Vandeventer next year and would like to try out for the tennis team, please sign up with either Coach Evans or Coach Bence. Please bring your racket and athletic clothes. Try outs should take no longer than 1 hour.
6. The final meeting of this year's board game club will take place tomorrow, Wednesday the 23rd, in the library from 3:45-4:45pm. If you haven't been able to join us for some gaming fun throughout the year, please join Mrs. Hazlewood this week to see what you've been missing!

7. Listen up Seahawks, There are a limited number of extra yearbooks for sale. If you are interested in buying a book you must have cash or a check made out to Scoggins Middle School for $30 dollars. Miss Farr will start selling books promptly at 7:30 am on Wednesday morning in the art room and it is first come, first serve until they are gone. Remember to bring your money and be in line at the art room door at 7:30 in order to buy one of the last few books. You may only buy one per person tomorrow morning. Hope to see you there!

Monday, May 21, 2012 –

1. Hey, 8th Grade Seahawks - can you believe it's almost the end of the year? Next Wednesday, May 23, is our annual 8th Grade "Later!" Lunch in the courtyard. All 8th graders can take their lunch into the courtyard and enjoy a longer lunch time. They will also have an opportunity to sign each other's yearbooks, as well as our 8th grade "Survivor" t-shirts, given to us each year by the Scoggins PTA! Plan to bring your favorite marker with you next Wednesday for the 8th Grade "Later!" Lunch!
2. 6th and 7th Grade Seahawks - we didn't forget about you - on Wednesday, May 23, during 8th period, 6th and 7th grade Seahawks will have their yearbook signing parties! Sixth graders will be in the Practice Gym, and seventh graders will be in the Competition Gym. We will dismiss by announcement, so go straight to your 8th period class and wait to be dismissed. Be sure to bring your favorite marker with you to 8th period next Wednesday!
3. Next week on Tuesday, May 29th and Wednesday, May 30th, the library will be hosting a Third Book Fair! You heard that right! A Third Book Fair! Come get the books you need for summer! The best news is, books are Buy One, Get One Free! Come visit the Book Fair next week!
4. Try outs for the Vandeventer tennis team will be held on Wednesday May 23rd immediately after school at the Scoggins tennis courts. If you are a 6th or 7th grader who will be attending Vandeventer next year and would like to try out for the tennis team, please sign up with either Coach Evans or Coach Bence. Please bring your racket and athletic clothes. Try outs should take no longer than 1 hour.
5. Attention all Seahawks: Thank you to any student who participated in the first ever Scoggins Library Book Drive. Although students from every lunch participated, only one lunch can be named the winner. Congratulations to A Lunch! Your donations earned you a special courtyard lunch for this Thursday.
6. The 7th grade boy's Seahawk soccer team matched up against Griffin Friday evening in a playoff game at Wakeland High School. These young men worked very hard all season long to earn a spot in the playoffs. Although your Seahawks were not victorious, we are very proud of their effort against a quality team from Griffin. Players of the game were Zach Gallette who did a terrific job leading the defense and Hudson Schwartz with several amazing saves in the goal. We look forward to seeing these young men move up as 8th graders and wish our players moving on to Vandeventer good luck!

Congratulations on a great season!

7. The 8th grade boys went into their playoff match Friday night vs. Cobb with a fight and determination to win. Although they did not win they walked off the field earning the respect of everyone there. Players of the game were Taylor Brozovich who played an amazing game on defense, and Matthew Lay who did a great job leading our offensive attack. Other stand out players were Darren Wilder, Seth Picasso, and Kevin Wang. Coach Dorwaldt and Coach Blanscet thanks all the players and is very grateful and honored for the opportunity to coach them. Good luck in high school!
8. The coaches would like to thank the 7th and 8th grade Lady Seahawk Soccer teams for all of their hard work this season. It has been a pleasure working with everyone and we wish you continued success in the game of soccer. Please be sure to return all equipment at your earliest convenience.

Friday, May 18, 2012 –

1. Hey, 8th Grade Seahawks - can you believe it's almost the end of the year? Next Wednesday, May 23, is our annual 8th Grade "Later!" Lunch in the courtyard. All 8th graders can take their lunch into the courtyard and enjoy a longer lunch time. They will also have an opportunity to sign each other's yearbooks, as well as our 8th grade "Survivor" t-shirts, given to us each year by the Scoggins PTA! Plan to bring your favorite marker with you next Wednesday for the 8th Grade "Later!" Lunch!
2. 6th and 7th Grade Seahawks - we didn't forget about you - on Wednesday, May 23, during 8th period, 6th and 7th grade Seahawks will have their yearbook signing parties! Sixth graders will be in the Practice Gym, and seventh graders will be in the Competition Gym. We will dismiss by announcement, so go straight to your 8th period class and wait to be dismissed. Be sure to bring your favorite marker with you to 8th period next Wednesday!
3. If you have lost jewelry in one of the girls locker rooms or gym over the past school year, please see Coach Bence as she has a HUGE collection of lost and found jewelry in her office. You will need to see her and describe your piece of jewelry to Coach Bence.
4. Like to dance? Want to perform at LHS Football games? Learn to spin flags, rifles and sabers and compete all over Texas as part of the Redhawk Color Guard. Before you say you can't, let us show you how you can! Come to our clinics, Monday, May 21st & Tuesday, May 22nd at 5:00 pm in the Liberty Band Hall. Then, try out for the team on Wednesday, May 23rd at 5:00 pm in the Liberty Band Hall. See the web for more info.

5. Try outs for the Vandeventer tennis team will be held on Wednesday May 23rd immediately after school at the Scoggins tennis courts. If you are a 6th or 7th grader who will be attending Vandeventer next year and would like to try out for the tennis team, please sign up with either Coach Evans or Coach Bence. Please bring your racket and athletic clothes. Try outs should take no longer than 1 hour.
6. Seahawks, If you are an eighth grader or a 6th or 7th grader going to Vandeventer next year, you are eligible to participate in the courtyard tile project. Eighth grade students or students going to Vandeventer next year, can bring in a permission slip and paint a tile during the last week of school to put out on Scoggins courtyard. Students will need to have a permission slip turned in by Monday, May 21st to participate. Permission slips were e-mailed home last night and you can also pick up a slip from the front office. Remember only eighth grader and students moving to Vandeventer are eligible to paint a tile this year. Come on out and join the fun!

Thursday, May 17, 2012 –

1. Hey, 8th Grade Seahawks - can you believe it's almost the end of the year? Next Wednesday, May 23, is our annual 8th Grade "Later!" Lunch in the courtyard. All 8th graders can take their lunch into the courtyard and enjoy a longer lunch time. They will also have an opportunity to sign each other's yearbooks, as well as our 8th grade "Survivor" t-shirts, given to us each year by the Scoggins PTA! Plan to bring your favorite marker with you next Wednesday for the 8th Grade "Later!" Lunch!
2. 6th and 7th Grade Seahawks - we didn't forget about you - on Wednesday, May 23, during 8th period, 6th and 7th grade Seahawks will have their yearbook signing parties! Sixth graders will be in the Practice Gym, and seventh graders will be in the Competition Gym. We will dismiss by announcement, so go straight to your 8th period class and wait to be dismissed. Be sure to bring your favorite marker with you to 8th period next Wednesday!
3. If you have lost jewelry in one of the girls locker rooms or gym over the past school year, please see Coach Bence as she has a HUGE collection of lost and found jewelry in her office. You will need to see her and describe your piece of jewelry to Coach Bence.
4. Like to dance? Want to perform at LHS Football games? Learn to spin flags, rifles and sabers and compete all over Texas as part of the Redhawk Color Guard. Before you say you can't, let us show you how you can! Come to our clinics, Monday, May 21st & Tuesday, May 22nd at 5:00 pm in the Liberty Band Hall. Then, try out for the team on Wednesday, May 23rd at 5:00 pm in the Liberty Band Hall. See the web for more info.
5. Listen up, Seahawks – remember that you must follow dress code for tomorrow's Carnival. This means no tank tops or short shorts – all clothing must be school-appropriate. Although some of the games may allow you to get wet, you are not allowed to wear bathing suits or swim trunks, either. We are also asking that you not wear white t-shirts – please leave those at home. If you're not sure if your outfit is in dress-code tomorrow, don't wear it! Also – plan to wear sunscreen tomorrow, and you may wear a hat and/or sunglasses when you are outside at the Carnival if you would like. Let's have a great time at the Carnival tomorrow afternoon, Seahawks!

6. Seahawks, If you are an eighth grader or a 6th or 7th grader going to Vandeventer next year, you are eligible to participate in the courtyard tile project. Eighth grade students or students going to Vandeventer next year, can bring in a permission slip and paint a tile during the last week of school to put out on Scoggins courtyard. Students will need to have a permission slip turned in by Monday, May 21st to participate. Permission slips were e-mailed home last night and you can also pick up a slip from the front office. Remember only eighth grader and students moving to Vandeventer are eligible to paint a tile this year. Come on out and join the fun!
7. Try outs for the Vandeventer tennis team will be held on Wednesday May 23rd immediately after school at the Scoggins tennis courts. If you are a 6th or 7th grader who will be attending Vandeventer next year and would like to try out for the tennis team, please sign up with either Coach Evans or Coach Bence. Please bring your racket and athletic clothes. Try outs should take no longer than 1 hour.

Wednesday, May 16, 2012 –

1. Today's the last day to turn in your library items! Items not turned in or paid for by 4pm today are considered lost and will cause you to miss the highly anticipated Scoggins Carnival. Thank you for taking care of this today!
2. Hey, 8th Grade Seahawks - can you believe it's almost the end of the year? Next Wednesday, May 23, is our annual 8th Grade "Later!" Lunch in the courtyard. All 8th graders can take their lunch into the courtyard and enjoy a longer lunch time. They will also have an opportunity to sign each other's yearbooks, as well as our 8th grade "Survivor" t-shirts, given to us each year by the Scoggins PTA! Plan to bring your favorite marker with you next Wednesday for the 8th Grade "Later!" Lunch!
3. 6th and 7th Grade Seahawks - we didn't forget about you - on Wednesday, May 23, during 8th period, 6th and 7th grade Seahawks will have their yearbook signing parties! Sixth graders will be in the Practice Gym, and seventh graders will be in the Competition Gym. We will dismiss by announcement, so go straight to your 8th period class and wait to be dismissed. Be sure to bring your favorite marker with you to 8th period next Wednesday!
4. Please join us to find out during this afternoon's gathering of the "board game club," which will take place from 3:45 – 4:45pm in the library. Mr. and Mrs. Titus hope to see many Seahawks there to join the fun!

5. If you have lost jewelry in one of the girls locker rooms or gym over the past school year, please see Coach Bence as she has a HUGE collection of lost and found jewelry in her office. You will need to see her and describe your piece of jewelry to Coach Bence.
6. Attention all 8th grade students attending the Dallas Holocaust Museum on Thursday. Please check your name on the rosters hanging in the 8th grade hall, cafeteria, and gym to see which group you are in for the field trip. We will be releasing you by the teacher's name that you are assigned to Thursday morning. Remember to show your Scoggins pride on Thursday by wearing a Scoggins shirt or a blue shirt.
7. Like to dance? Want to perform at LHS Football games? Learn to spin flags, rifles and sabers and compete all over Texas as part of the Redhawk Color Guard. Before you say you can't, let us show you how you can! Come to our clinics, Monday, May 21st & Tuesday, May 22nd at 5:00 pm in the Liberty Band Hall. Then, try out for the team on Wednesday, May 23rd at 5:00 pm in the Liberty Band Hall. See the web for more info.

Tuesday, May 15, 2012 –

1. Students: It's the time of year to start cleaning out your lockers, backpacks, underneath your bed, etc.! All library items are due by Wednesday, May 16th! If you have items out they are considering lost after the 16th and you will be asked to pay for them or return them. If you do not take care of your library items you will be unable to attend the highly anticipated Scoggins Carnival. If you need to know if you have any items out your reading teacher has a list or you can stop by the library and check with Mrs. Turner. Thank you for getting your items turned in!
2. Mr. and Mrs. Titus will be hosting this week's gathering of the board game club, and hope to see many of you Seahawks in the library from 3:45-4:45pm to join the fun!
3. From today, there are only 3 days left in the book drive. The totals are: 29 for A lunch, 0 for B lunch and 7 for C lunch. All of the books will be in the library, so make sure they're school appropriate. Remember the grade with the most books will win a courtyard lunch. Keep bringing books! Good luck! – Student Council

Monday, May 14, 2012 –

1. Students: It's the time of year to start cleaning out your lockers, backpacks, underneath your bed, etc.! All library items are due by Wednesday, May 16th! If you have items out they are considering lost after the 16th and you will be asked to pay for them or return them. If you do not take care of your library items you will be unable to attend the highly anticipated Scoggins Carnival. If you need to know if you have any items out your reading teacher has a list or you can stop by the library and check with Mrs. Turner. Thank you for getting your items turned in!

2. The Philharmonic Orchestra and the Beginner Orchestra went to the Sandy Lake Fun Fest last week, and both groups earned straight superior ratings from all the judges. Way to go musical seahawks!

Friday, May 11, 2012 –

1. Students: It's the time of year to start cleaning out your lockers, backpacks, underneath your bed, etc.! All library items are due by Wednesday, May 16th! If you have items out they are considering lost after the 16th and you will be asked to pay for them or return them. If you do not take care of your library items you will be unable to attend the highly anticipated Scoggins Carnival. If you need to know if you have any items out your reading teacher has a list or you can stop by the library and check with Mrs. Turner. Thank you for getting your items turned in!
2. Attention all Seahawks: The Student Council decided to end the year with a book drive for the library. Bring in new or gently used books to the cafeteria, library, or front office between May 1 and May 18 to donate. A list of high demand books can be found hanging around the school or in the library. This is a competition between the lunches. The winning lunch receives a courtyard lunch as the prize. Bring in one of your favorite books to donate tomorrow!
3. 7th and 8th grade lady Seahawks battled Hunt last night in the most physical soccer match yet. Although both games ended in defeat, the lady Seahawks stood their ground and played strong throughout the entire game. Players of the game are Fernanda Gallardo and Courtney Hunt. Great job, lady Seahawks!

Thursday, May 10, 2012 –

1. Students: It's the time of year to start cleaning out your lockers, backpacks, underneath your bed, etc.! All library items are due by Wednesday, May 16th! If you have items out they are considering lost after the 16th and you will be asked to pay for them or return them. If you do not take care of your library items you will be unable to attend the highly anticipated Scoggins Carnival. If you need to know if you have any items out your reading teacher has a list or you can stop by the library and check with Mrs. Turner. Thank you for getting your items turned in!
2. Attention all Seahawks: The Student Council decided to end the year with a book drive for the library. Bring in new or gently used books to the cafeteria, library, or front office between May 1 and May 18 to donate. A list of high demand books can be found hanging around the school or in the library. This is a competition between the lunches. The winning lunch receives a courtyard lunch as the prize. Bring in one of your favorite books to donate tomorrow!

3. The Symphonic Orchestra attended the Peak Music Festival yesterday, and came home with several awards. Four students were recognized for outstanding performances. Congratulations to Shaunessy Renker, Eric Han, Emily Chung and Mason Miller. The violin section and cello section were also presented with an award. The Symphonic Orchestra received straight superior ratings from all three judges, and were awarded a best in class award as well. In addition, the Scoggins Symphonic Orchestra was named the Most Outstanding Middle School Orchestra of the day. Congratulations musical Seahawks!
4. Congratulations to members of the Scoggins Concert and Symphonic Bands. Both groups performed yesterday at the Peak Music Festival in Richardson. Each group came away with straight first division ratings from every judge, and each was named 'Best in Class' in its division. This is such a great display of excellence from these groups and the directors are so proud of the bands. Way to bring home four BIG Trophies band!

Wednesday, May 9, 2012 –

1. Students: It's the time of year to start cleaning out your lockers, backpacks, underneath your bed, etc.! All library items are due by Wednesday, May 16th! If you have items out they are considering lost after the 16th and you will be asked to pay for them or return them. If you do not take care of your library items you will be unable to attend the highly anticipated Scoggins Carnival. If you need to know if you have any items out your reading teacher has a list or you can stop by the library and check with Mrs. Turner. Thank you for getting your items turned in!
2. Seahawk Book Club Members: Thursday, May 10th is our last book club meeting of the year. The meeting will be at 8am in the library. See you there!
3. Just a quick reminder about this afternoon's gathering of the board game club. Mrs. Hazlewood and Mrs. Lunsford hope to see you in B105 (instead of the library) from 3:45 – 4:45pm to join the fun.
4. Attention all Seahawks: The Student Council decided to end the year with a book drive for the library. Bring in new or gently used books to the cafeteria, library, or front office between May 1 and May 18 to donate. A list of high demand books can be found hanging around the school or in the library. This is a competition between the lunches. The winning lunch receives a courtyard lunch as the prize. Bring in one of your favorite books to donate tomorrow!

Tuesday, May 8, 2012 –

1. Students: It's the time of year to start cleaning out your lockers, backpacks, underneath your bed, etc.! All library items are due by Wednesday, May 16th! If you have items out they are considering lost after the 16th and you will be asked to pay for them or return them. If you do not take care of your library items you will be unable to attend the highly anticipated Scoggins Carnival. If you need to know if you have any items out your reading teacher has a list or you can stop by the library and check with Mrs. Turner. Thank you for getting your items turned in!
2. Seahawk Book Club Members: Thursday, May 10th is our last book club meeting of the year. The meeting will be at 8am in the library. See you there!
3. Don't forget about the weekly board game club gathering, which takes place every Wednesday from 3:45-4:45pm.
Mrs. Hazlewood and Mrs. Lunsford will be hosting this week, but please note that the gathering will take in Hazlewood's room – B105 – due to a staff event in the library. Here's hoping we see many of you there this Wednesday afternoon to join the fun.
4. If you plan to participate in Heritage High School athletics next school year, you must have your physical turned in to your Heritage High School coach by May 25th!
5. Last Friday the Scoggins Choir competed at the Sandy Lake competition. They not only received straight ones from all judges, but also won, the highly sought after, 'most outstanding choir' award. This is the first time the Scoggins Choir has ever received such an honor. Congratulations to these talented musicians.
6. In the fairy tale criminal justice system the characters from fairy tales and nursery rhymes are represented by two desperate yet equally ridiculous groups: the fairy tale police who investigate fairy tale crime, and the fairy tale district attorneys who prosecute the Fairytale offenders. Come out tonight, One night only, to see their stories, to see the Scoggins Theatre Spring Play Festival! The 6th and 7th grade Spring play, Law and Order: Fairytale Unit by Jonathan Rand begins at 5:30 PM and the 8th grade Spring Play, Big Bad by Alec Strum begins at 7:30 PM. Tickets are $2 and available at the door! Hope to see everyone there!
Ms. Miller.
7. Hey Seahawks! The music you are enjoying today is brought to you by our award winning concert & symphonic band from their recent UIL performance. Congrats to our band and ENJOY!
8. Attention all Seahawks: The Student Council decided to end the year with a book drive for the library. Bring in new or gently used books to the cafeteria, library, or front office between May 1 and May 18 to donate. A list of high demand books can be found hanging around the school or in the library. This is a competition between the lunches. The winning lunch receives a courtyard lunch as the prize. Bring in one of your favorite books to donate tomorrow!

9. Your 7th and 8th grade Seahawk Soccer Team battled the Hunt Huskies last night at Frisco High School. 7th grade dominated the game from the beginning with goals scored by Spencer Enlow, Khai Nguyen, Reece Stewart, and Arinza Ogba. 7th grade ended up crushing the Huskies by a score of 6-2. 8th grade also dominated the Huskies throughout the game; however, we were not able to put the ball in the goal and settled for a 0-0 tie. Darrin Wilder and Carter Blunt played a terrific game. Please come out next Monday evening, May 14, as we battle the Fowler Falcons for our final regular season game at Liberty High School. We need your support as we make our final push toward the playoffs. Go Seahawks!

Monday, May 7, 2012 –

1. All boys and girls participating in 7th and 8th grade Athletics at Vandeventer can turn their completed paperwork (including a completed physical) in to Coach Michaelis in room A213 or to Mrs. Poyner in the office. Please see Coach Michaelis if you have any questions.
2. Students: It's the time of year to start cleaning out your lockers, backpacks, underneath your bed, etc.! All library items are due by Wednesday, May 16th! If you have items out they are considering lost after the 16th and you will be asked to pay for them or return them. If you do not take care of your library items you will be unable to attend the highly anticipated Scoggins Carnival. If you need to know if you have any items out your reading teacher has a list or you can stop by the library and check with Mrs. Turner. Thank you for getting your items turned in!
3. If you plan to participate in Heritage High School athletics next school year, you must have your physical turned in to your Heritage High School coach by May 25th!

Friday, May 4, 2012 –

1. Attention all Seahawks: The Student Council decided to end the year with a book drive for the library. Bring in new or gently used books to the cafeteria, library, or front office between May 1 and May 18 to donate. A list of high demand books can be found hanging around the school or in the library. This is a competition between the lunches. The winning lunch receives a courtyard lunch as the prize. Bring in one of your favorite books to donate tomorrow!

2. All boys and girls participating in 7th and 8th grade Athletics at Vandeventer can turn their completed paperwork (including a completed physical) in to Coach Michaelis in room A213 or to Mrs. Poyner in the office. Please see Coach Michaelis if you have any questions.
3. Students: It's the time of year to start cleaning out your lockers, backpacks, underneath your bed, etc.! All library items are due by Wednesday, May 16th! If you have items out they are considering lost after the 16th and you will be asked to pay for them or return them. If you do not take care of your library items you will be unable to attend the highly anticipated Scoggins Carnival. If you need to know if you have any items out your reading teacher has a list or you can stop by the library and check with Mrs. Turner. Thank you for getting your items turned in!
4. 6th and 7th grade Law and Order: Fairy Tale Unit Spring Play Cast and Crew! Please do not forget that we have rehearsals today after school until 5:30 PM. This is our last rehearsal before our dress rehearsal and performance next week! Please make sure that your parents know to pick you up in front of the school promptly at 5:30 PM. Thank you! Ms. Miller
5. 7th grade lady Seahawks soccer team played a great game against the Pioneer Panthers. Even though the result was defeat, the lady Seahawks never showed signs of letting up, shooting countless goals and staying positive. The player of the game is Christina Boyes for doing an outstanding job in the goal.

8th grade lady Seahawks played the Pioneer Panthers in a physical match in which the lady Seahawks never let up and never lost composure. Although the game ended in defeat, the lady Seahawks were able to pull together defensively and stay positive. Player of the game goes to Shannon Kiely as goalie during the 2nd half, for having such a great attitude and setting a great example as a leader for the 8th grade team. Way to go lady Seahawks!

Thursday, May 3, 2012 –

1. Attention all Seahawks: The Student Council decided to end the year with a book drive for the library. Bring in new or gently used books to the cafeteria, library, or front office between May 1 and May 18 to donate. A list of high demand books can be found hanging around the school or in the library. This is a competition between the lunches. The winning lunch receives a courtyard lunch as the prize. Bring in one of your favorite books to donate tomorrow!
2. All boys and girls participating in 7th and 8th grade Athletics at Vandeventer can turn their completed paperwork (including a completed physical) in to Coach Michaelis in room A213 or to Mrs. Poyner in the office. Please see Coach Michaelis if you have any questions.

3. 8th grade Spring Play Cast and Crew! Please do not forget that we have rehearsals today after school until 5:30 PM. This is our last rehearsal before our dress rehearsal and performance next week! Please make sure that your parents know to pick you up in front of the school promptly at 5:30 PM. Thank you! Ms. Miller

Wednesday, May 2, 2012 –

1. The next “board game club” meeting will take place this afternoon from 3:45 – 4:45pm in the library.
Mr. Garison and Mr. Rogers hope to see many of you after school today!
2. Attention all Seahawks: The Student Council decided to end the year with a book drive for the library. Bring in new or gently used books to the cafeteria, library, or front office between May 1 and May 18 to donate. A list of high demand books can be found hanging around the school or in the library. This is a competition between the lunches. The winning lunch receives a courtyard lunch as the prize. Bring in one of your favorite books to donate tomorrow!
3. All boys and girls participating in 7th and 8th grade Athletics at Vandeventer can turn their completed paperwork (including a completed physical) in to Coach Michaelis in room A213 or to Mrs. Poyner in the office. Please see Coach Michaelis if you have any questions.
4. Attention all 8th grade students who are interested in Liberty athletics next school year: There will be a general athletics meeting tonight at 6:30pm in the LHS auditorium. Please plan to attend with a parent or guardian.
5. Your Seahawk Soccer team battled the Pioneer Heritage Panthers last night at Liberty High School. Both the 7th and 8th grade teams lost 0-2. Players of the game for 7th grade are Hudson Schwartz and Spencer Enlow. Players of the game for 8th grade are Kevin Wang and Issac Moralez. Please come out and support your boys's soccer team next Monday evening, May 7th, as we take on the Hunt Huskies at Frisco High School. We need your support as we make our push toward the playoffs.
6. 6th AND 7th grade Spring Play Cast and Crew! Please do not forget that we have rehearsals today after school until 5:30 PM. Please make sure that your parents know to pick you up in front of the school promptly at 5:30 PM. Thank you! Ms. Miller

Tuesday, May 1, 2012 –

1. Vandeventer boys and girls athletic parent meeting will be on Tuesday, May 1st, at 6pm, in the Liberty High School Cafeteria.
2. Congratulations to the Academic Pentathlon Team who had their competition in Rockwall on Saturday! Scoggins earned 3 medals this year and placed very well at the competition. 7th grader Olivia Nese placed 2nd in the Essay category and earned a silver medal. Additionally, 7th graders Frederick Wang and Emily Chung both earned bronze medals by tying for 3rd place in mathematics. Way to go! Mrs. Madden and Ms. Eck want to send out a big THANK YOU to Mr. Pearson for showing his Scoggins PRIDE and helping out during the competition! Way to go Scoggins!
3. Don't forget about the weekly board game club gathering, which takes place every Wednesday from 3:45-4:45pm in the library. Mr. Rogers and Mr. Garison hope to see many of you there this Wednesday afternoon to join the fun.
4. Attention all Seahawks: The Student Council decided to end the year with a book drive for the library. Bring in new or gently used books to the cafeteria, library, or front office between May 1 and May 18 to donate. A list of high demand books can be found hanging around the school or in the library. This is a competition between the lunches. The winning lunch receives a courtyard lunch as the prize. Bring in one of your favorite books to donate tomorrow!
5. 8th grade Spring Play Cast and Crew! Please do not forget that we have rehearsals today after school until 5:30 PM. Please make sure that your parents know to pick you up in front of the school promptly at 5:30 PM. Thank you! Ms. Miller

Friday, April 27, 2012 –

1. April is School Library Month. Stop by the library during the month of April to check out a book, research, or get help from your librarian and you will be entered to win a prize. Winners will be announced each Friday in April. Now listen to these words from news correspondent Linton Weeks: "In the nonstop tsunami of global information, librarians provide us with floaties and teach us how to swim." Stop by your library today and celebrate School Library Month!
2. Summer camps for Scoggins, Vandeventer, Liberty and Heritage are posted on the bulletin board in the athletic hallway. Please refer to the bulletin board, about date and time information, for these summer camps. See Coach Evans or Coach Bence if you have any questions.

3. The Liberty Swim Team is holding a swim clinic this Saturday, May 5th at the FISD Natatorium. The clinic is from 10:30am to 12:00pm. Bring your swim suit, goggles, towel and your signed permission form to participate. Learn about high school swimming, swim with the Redhawks and there will be free pizza at the end of the clinic. "Taking flight to the water."
4. Law and Order: Fairy Tale Unit don't forget that we have rehearsals today after school until 5 PM. Please have your ride pick you up at the front of the school at 5 PM.

Thursday, April 26, 2012 –

1. April is School Library Month. Stop by the library during the month of April to check out a book, research, or get help from your librarian and you will be entered to win a prize. Winners will be announced each Friday in April. Now listen to these words from the American Library Association: "Libraries are the mind and soul of their communities, and librarians are the mind and soul of the library." Stop by your library today and celebrate School Library Month!
2. Summer camps for Scoggins, Vandeventer, Liberty and Heritage are posted on the bulletin board in the athletic hallway. Please refer to the bulletin board, about date and time information, for these summer camps. See Coach Evans or Coach Bence if you have any questions.
3. The Liberty Swim Team is holding a swim clinic this Saturday, May 5th at the FISD Natatorium. The clinic is from 10:30am to 12:00pm. Bring your swim suit, goggles, towel and your signed permission form to participate. Learn about high school swimming, swim with the Redhawks and there will be free pizza at the end of the clinic. "Taking flight to the water."

Wednesday, April 25, 2012 –

1. April is School Library Month. Stop by the library during the month of April to check out a book, research, or get help from your librarian and you will be entered to win a prize. Winners will be announced each Friday in April. Now listen to these words from Megan Jo Tetrick, a 12 year old student in Indiana: "If we didn't have libraries, many people thirsty for knowledge would dehydrate." Stop by your library today and celebrate School Library Month!
2. This is a final reminder that there is NO Board Game club today. See you gamers next Wednesday!

3. Summer camps for Scoggins, Vandeventer, Liberty and Heritage are posted on the bulletin board in the athletic hallway. Please refer to the bulletin board, about date and time information, for these summer camps. See Coach Evans or Coach Bence if you have any questions.

Tuesday, April 24, 2012 –

1. Hey - Academic Pentathlon members, we will not have a meeting this week due to STAAR testing. Don't forget we have our HUGE competition this Saturday in Rockwall. Don't forget to meet us at Clark Middle School bright and early Saturday morning to catch the bus to the event. Be sure to wear your new Pentathlon shirt!!!! See you there!
2. April is School Library Month. Stop by the library during the month of April to check out a book, research, or get help from your librarian and you will be entered to win a prize. Winners will be announced each Friday in April. Now listen to these words from author Tom Clancy: "The only way to do all the things you'd like to do is to read." Stop by your library today and celebrate School Library Month!
3. Due to this week's STAAR testing, there will NOT be a meeting of the board game club this Wednesday afternoon. If you normally stay after school for this event, please make ride arrangements that will allow you to leave directly at the end of the school day. We will resume our usual meeting next week.
4. Summer camps for Scoggins, Vandeventer, Liberty and Heritage are posted on the bulletin board in the athletic hallway. Please refer to the bulletin board, about date and time information, for these summer camps. See Coach Evans or Coach Bence if you have any questions.

Monday, April 23, 2012 –

1. Hey - Academic Pentathlon members, we will not have a meeting this week due to STAAR testing. Don't forget we have our HUGE competition this Saturday in Rockwall. Don't forget to meet us at Clark Middle School bright and early Saturday morning to catch the bus to the event. Be sure to wear your new Pentathlon shirt!!!! See you there!
2. April is School Library Month. Stop by the library during the month of April to check out a book, research, or get help from your librarian and you will be entered to win a prize. Winners will be announced each Friday in April. Now listen to these words from President Thomas Jefferson: "I cannot live without books." Stop by your library today and celebrate School Library Month!

3. Members of the Scoggins Orchestra competed in the Solo and Ensemble competition this past Saturday at Maus Middle School. They brought home 118 medals and the following students earned the very top rating of a one plus on their solo performance: Jack Jeon, Willie Chan, Eric Han, Emily Chung, Shaunessy Renker, TJ McKaye, and Kyle Monk! Congratulations musical Seahawks!
4. Due to this week's STAAR testing, there will NOT be a meeting of the board game club this Wednesday afternoon. If you normally stay after school for this event, please make ride arrangements that will allow you to leave directly at the end of the school day. We will resume our usual meeting next week.
5. Law and Order: Fairy Tale Unit 6th and 7th Grade cast and crew please do not forget that we have rehearsals today after school until 5 PM. Please make sure that your ride is at the front of the building at 5 PM.

Friday, April 20, 2012 –

1. April is School Library Month. Stop by the library during the month of April to check out a book, research, or get help from your librarian and you will be entered to win a prize. Winners will be announced each Friday in April. Now listen to these words from actor Peter Falk, the grandfather in the movie The Princess Bride: "When I was your age, television was called books!" Stop by your library today and celebrate School Library Month!
2. Hey, Seahawks: You are all invited to attend our fourth Seahawk Saturday STAAR Camp for 6th & 7th Grade Math and Reading and 8th Grade Science and U.S. History tomorrow from 8 AM to 12 PM. We will practice our math, reading, science and history skills, play fun games, spend time with our favorite teachers, and have the chance to win some cool prizes, so be sure to come tomorrow! Bus route information is available on the Scoggins website, or in the front office. If you plan to ride the bus, please RSVP in the front office. See you tomorrow!
3. You are invited to the Liberty High School Red Rhythm Dance Team Revue this Friday and Saturday! The dance show will begin at 7:30pm in the LHS Auditorium. Tickets are $3 for students and teachers get in free with Fisd ID. Thanks for your support of Red Rhythm! We hope to see you there!
4. Attention 6th and 7th Grade Play Cast and Crew this is a reminder that there are NO theatre rehearsals today after school.

5. Last night the lady Seahawks soccer teams were defeated by the Griffin Gators with a score of 3-1. The teams played hard but were not able to hold them from scoring in the second half. Thank you to those who were able to come out and support. We play Pioneer Panthers next week at Liberty HS. Thanks and have a great weekend.

Thursday, April 19, 2012 –

1. April is School Library Month. Stop by the library during the month of April to check out a book, research, or get help from your librarian and you will be entered to win a prize. Winners will be announced each Friday in April. Now listen to these words from former first lady Barbara Bush: "Libraries and librarians have definitely changed my life -- and the lives of countless other Americans...they deserve the support and patronage of every single one of us who values education." Stop by your library today and celebrate School Library Month!
2. Hey, Seahawks: You are all invited to attend our fourth Seahawk Saturday STAAR Camp for 6th & 7th Grade Math and Reading and 8th Grade Science and U.S. History this Saturday from 8 AM to 12 PM. We will practice our math, reading, science and history skills, play fun games, spend time with our favorite teachers, and have the chance to win some cool prizes, so be sure to come this Saturday! Bus route information is available on the Scoggins website, or in the front office. If you plan to ride the bus, please RSVP in the front office. We hope to see you there!
3. You are invited to the Liberty High School Red Rhythm Dance Team Revue this Friday and Saturday! The dance show will begin at 7:30pm in the LHS Auditorium. Tickets are $3 for students and teachers get in free with FUSD ID. Thanks for your support of Red Rhythm! We hope to see you there!
4. Attention 8th Grade Play Cast and Crew this is a reminder that there are NO theatre rehearsals today after school.

Wednesday, April 18, 2012 –

1. April is School Library Month. Stop by the library during the month of April to check out a book, research, or get help from your librarian and you will be entered to win a prize. Winners will be announced each Friday in April. Now listen to these words from the American Library Association: "When you absolutely positively have to know, ask a librarian." Stop by your library today and celebrate School Library Month!
2. Hey, Seahawks: You are all invited to attend our fourth Seahawk Saturday STAAR Camp for 6th & 7th Grade Math and Reading and 8th Grade Science and U.S. History this Saturday from 8 AM to 12 PM. We will practice our math, reading, science and history skills, play fun games, spend time with our favorite teachers, and have the chance to win some cool prizes, so be sure to come this Saturday! Bus route information is available on the Scoggins website, or in the front office. If you plan to ride the bus, please RSVP in the front office. We hope to see you there!

3. Are you tired of the boring STAAR practice that has been taking over your classes this week? Do you want to spend some time with friends doing something that is NOT educational?

Then come join us for some gaming fun tomorrow in the library from 3:45 – 4:45pm. Mr. and Mrs. Titus hope to see many of you Seahawks there to join the fun!

4. You are invited to the Liberty High School Red Rhythm Dance Team Revue this Friday and Saturday! The dance show will begin at 7:30pm in the LHS Auditorium. Tickets are $3 for students and teachers get in free with FID ID. Thanks for your support of Red Rhythm! We hope to see you there!
5. Congrats to Camren Guresh and Vivien Vu who were both winners at the Wimberley Butterfly contest. Camren Guresh won a ribbon for his realistic butterfly and Vivian Vu get a ribbon for her fantasy butterfly. Miss Farr appreciates everyone who contributed.

Tuesday, April 17, 2012 –

1. The hallway music today is “Elmo’s Song” and was picked by our Book Fair winner who got to pick the hallway music for a day! Congratulations, and enjoy the music!
2. Academic Pentathlon Team members, don’t forget our meeting Wednesday at 7:45 a.m. in B100. Be sure to bring your materials so that you can get your questions added to the site! If you cannot attend, you need to meet with either Mrs. Madden or Ms. Eck before Wednesday morning’s practice. We look forward to seeing you there!
3. The Giants Bible Club will be meeting Tuesday, after school from 3:45 to 4:30 in Coach Carpenter’s room. Come explore the wonders of God!
4. April is School Library Month. Stop by the library during the month of April to check out a book, research, or get help from your librarian and you will be entered to win a prize. Winners will be announced each Friday in April. Now listen to these words from talk show host and media personality Regis Philbin: "What can I say? Librarians rule!" Stop by your library today and celebrate School Library Month!
5. Hey, Seahawks: You are all invited to attend our fourth Seahawk Saturday STAAR Camp for 6th & 7th Grade Math and Reading and 8th Grade Science and U.S. History this Saturday from 8 AM to 12 PM. We will practice our math, reading, science and history skills, play fun games, spend time with our favorite teachers, and have the chance to win some cool prizes, so be sure to come this Saturday! Bus route information is available on the Scoggins website, or in the front office. If you plan to ride the bus, please RSVP in the front office. We hope to see you there!

6. Don't forget about the weekly board game club gathering, which takes place every Wednesday from 3:45-4:45pm in the library.
Mr. and Mrs. Titus hope to see many of you there this Wednesday afternoon to join the fun.
7. This past weekend, the Math & Science team participated in the State Math & Science Competition in San Antonio. Emily Chung placed 5th in state in mathematics, Justin Lee placed 25th in state in science and our 7th grade students placed 10th overall in mathematics. Mr. Westphal and Mr. Boyle are extremely pleased with all who competed and everyone on the team for all their hard work and dedication this year.
8. Our 8th grade Scoggins Soccer team took on the Undefeated Griffin Gators last night. In a hard fought match we were able to pull off a draw, and claim the result to keep us in playoff position. In the second half Seth Picasso just barely missed the game winning goal when he hit the far post with only 8 minutes left.
Our keeper Gio Martinez played an amazing match in shutting out Griffin. Offensive MVP of the match was Matthew Lay, and our defensive MVP was Taylor Brozovich.

Our 7th grade Scoggins Soccer team took on an undefeated Griffin Gators team last night. In the second half Reece Stewart scored the tying goal to bring the match to 1-1. Scoggins again fell behind, but Khai Nguyen was able to score another goal and give Scoggins a chance to tie the match. The boys fell short, but fought hard the whole match. Offensive MVP was Josh Holden, and our defensive MVP was Zach Gallette.

Monday, April 16, 2012 –

1. Academic Pentathlon Team members, don't forget our meeting Wednesday at 7:45 a.m. in B100. Be sure to bring your materials so that you can get your questions added to the site! If you cannot attend, you need to meet with either Mrs. Madden or Ms. Eck before Wednesday morning's practice. We look forward to seeing you there!
2. The Giants Bible Club will be meeting Tuesday, after school from 3:45 to 4:30 in Coach Carpenter's room. Come explore the wonders of God!
3. April is School Library Month. Stop by the library during the month of April to check out a book, research, or get help from your librarian and you will be entered to win a prize. Winners will be announced each Friday in April. Now listen to these words from former first lady Laura Bush: "School libraries help teachers teach and children learn. Children and teachers need library resources--especially books--and the expertise of a librarian to succeed. Books, information technology and school librarians who are part of the schools' professional team are basic ingredients for student achievement." Stop by your library today and celebrate School Library Month!

4. Hey, Seahawks: You are all invited to attend our forth Seahawk Saturday STAAR Camp for 6th & 7th Grade Math and Reading and 8th Grade Science and U.S. History this Saturday from 8 AM to 12 PM. We will practice our math, reading, science and history skills, play fun games, spend time with our favorite teachers, and have the chance to win some cool prizes, so be sure to come this Saturday! Bus route information is available on the Scoggins website, or in the front office. If you plan to ride the bus, please RSVP in the front office. We hope to see you there!