

You did it!

Congratulations! It is with great pleasure that we inform you that one or more of the schools in your district is a 2011 NCEA Higher Performing School (formerly known as Just for the Kids Higher Performing School). Please click on the included links to learn more about this achievement.

We identify higher performing schools based on two measures: above-predicted growth based on a value-added analysis, or an above-predicted percentage of continuously enrolled students scoring at the Commended level on the 2009-2011 Texas Assessment of Knowledge and Skills (TAKS).

We thank you for your unwavering dedication to your district, teachers and students.

Regards,

Angela Hall Watkins
Assistant Vice President, Managing Director
awatkins@nc4ea.org

To see the areas in which your school is higher performing and the complete 2011 NCEA Higher Performing Schools List in Texas, click here.

To learn more about how we identify higher performing schools in Texas, click here.

For a general overview of statewide student performance, click here.

How can this list help your school or district? Click here.

To use our online press kit to inform your local media of your success, click here.

For a list of FAQ's, click here.

To subscribe to our mailing list, click here.