

TAKS Testing Procedures

March 7, 2012 (ELA)

We are rapidly approaching the Language Arts TAKS testing date of Wednesday, March 7, 2012. On this date, 9th graders will work on information pertinent to English I EOC Exam, while 10th and 11th graders take the English Language Arts TAKS test. Please do not schedule appointments for your child on this date. If you have a previously scheduled appointment, we ask that it be after 1:45 p.m., or re-scheduled for another day. In order to eliminate distractions, we will not make classroom deliveries or send messages to students during testing. Barring extenuating circumstances, no exceptions will be made.

All TAKS tests are untimed, with students being given as much time as deemed necessary for completion. To this end, we ask that all 9th, 10th, and 11th grade students bring a sack lunch to eat in their respective rooms. Students may also order a sack lunch from the Wakeland Cafeteria using the attached order form, and, if applicable, their account will be charged for a regular lunch. Order forms must be turned in to the office, A120, by Friday, March 2, 2012. Snacks such as goldfish or cheese/crackers and bottled water will be provided in the testing rooms by the school.

Senior students will have late arrival on March 7th, reporting to school at 1:45 pm for their 3A class.

Thank you in advance for your assistance in creating the most effective testing environment for your student's success. Please refer to the Wakeland website for testing information as well as upcoming events.
