

Newsweek Top School Honoree

For the second consecutive year, Centennial High School has been recognized by Newsweek Magazine in its designation of the Top 1,500 high schools in the United States. Centennial proudly accepts this honor which is based on the percentage of students enrolled in Advance Placement or AP classes and their subsequent success in said classes, as well as, on the Advance Placement exams. Congratulations Titans!