

Best of Texas Awards Program

Purpose:

To recognize senior Career and Technology Education Students (CTE), alumni and community members who are doing an outstanding job worthy of recognition. It is essential to provide a tangible incentive for people to excel and for others to strive to reach the point of recognition.

Rules and Regulations:

- Complete the Official Nomination Form for the appropriate category. (There are two nomination forms, one for the student awards, and one for the alumni and community awards.) Application must be typed.
- Student award nominees may only be nominated by their CTE program instructor unless otherwise noted. A nominator may nominate more than one student in their respective program area.
- Outstanding Career and Technology Education Student-Guidance Division must be nominated by a CTAT-Guidance Division member.
- Outstanding Career and Technology Education Student-Administration Division must be nominated by a CTAT-Administration Division member.
- The nominator must be an active member of one of the following state CTE professional associations:
ATTE, CTAT-Administrators, CTAT-Career Guidance, FCSTAT, MET, TBTEA, TCTGA, THOA, TIVA, VATAT
- Students nominated must be an active member of one of the following state CTE student organizations:
BPA, DECA, FBLA, FCCLA, FFA, HOSA, Skills USA, TSA

If all items are not completed according to the Rules and Regulations the student's application will not be considered.
