

BEN EWALD

LEGAL STUDIES

ewaldb@friscoisd.org | 469-633-6780

Bio & Education

I enjoy teaching and I love the law. My specialty is the U.S. Constitution and court procedure. I have been honored by selection to trainings at Georgetown Law and the Supreme Court. I have also been honored as the Texas State Bar's High School Teacher of the Year.

I have been teaching in Texas since 2001 and I have been in Frisco ISD since 2004. I have two degrees from Louisiana Tech University, including a Masters degree in Kinesiology. I plan to start a terminal degree in either law or education in the next couple of years.

Course Taught

I currently teach Courts and Criminal Procedures, Mock Trial, and Constitutional law

My conference is A-day 2nd period 10:00am to 12:00pm

<https://wiki.friscoisd.org/users/ewaldb> - Check out our Classroom Blog!

Activities/Hobbies

- Martial Arts
- Soccer, Tennis, Golf
- Enjoy cars, spending time with my wife, and anything to do with Louisiana Tech University