Bio & Education

After graduating from Hong Kong International School, I was dropped off at Baylor University where my parents told me they would “see me at Christmas.” I survived the experience, and went on to graduate from Baylor with a Radio/TV/Film degree. Then I went to Zambia for two years and helped the local TV station, ZNBC, learn how to use their broadcast equipment. I taught speech to seminary students, filmed and edited an AIDS video for the Zambian Health Department, among other things. After returning to the USA, I worked for Marriott hotels for 8 years. In 2000, I received my Alternative Teaching Certificate from CCCCD. I began teaching for FISD in 2001, while earning my Masters Degree in Higher Education from Texas A&M at Commerce.

Course Taught

I currently teach Animation 1 & 2.

My conference is 4th period each day from 2:30-4:00.

We are using industry standard Maya 2010, 3D animation software.
