

April 5, 2009

Dear Frisco ISD High School Junior Parents/Guardians:

On behalf of the Frisco Independent School District, we are pleased to offer your child the opportunity to participate in an advanced study program to prepare for the SAT. The SAT is an important test administered through College Board as part of the college admissions process. Frisco is offering a two-day Bootcamp to help students prepare for the SAT. This Bootcamp will be administered through Frisco ISD in partnership with The Princeton Review, a leading firm in test preparation and educational enrichment.

Your son or daughter is eligible to participate in our Bootcamp. The cost for this program is minimal: $125 for the 6-hour Bootcamp. Please complete the enclosed registration form and submit it along with your $125 check made payable to The Princeton Review, or feel free to visit The Princeton Review online at www.princetonreview.com to enroll in specific courses listed below. Tuition is due on or before the first day of class.

SAT Bootcamp:

Course # 110200236 Frisco HS Course # 110200242 Liberty HS

Sat, April 18th, 2009 (Class)

(9:00am-12:00pm & 1:00 – 3:00pm)

Sun, April 19th, 2009 (Test)

(2:00pm – 6:15pm)

(Preparation for May 2nd SAT)

deadline to register is Thursday, April 16th

Or

SAT Bootcamp:

Course # 110200237 Frisco HS Course # 110200243 Liberty HS

Sat, April 25th, 2009 (Class)

(9:00am-12:00pm & 1:00 – 3:00pm)

Sun, April 26th, 2009 (Test)

(2:00pm – 6:15pm)

(Preparation for May 2nd SAT)

deadline to register is Thursday, April 23rd

This is a great opportunity for your son or daughter, and we ask for your support in fostering their education and your commitment to the success of this program. We are confident the partnership with The Princeton Review will provide students with a significant edge on this important step to academic achievement and their road to college.

Sincerely,

Frisco ISD