Bio & Education

I attended the University of Tennessee, Knoxville where I received a B.S. in the Coordinated Undergraduate Program of Dietetics. I am a registered dietitian and licensed nutritionist. After moving to Texas in 1999 I began substitute teaching and enjoyed working with students so much that I obtained my teaching certification in Family and Consumer Sciences.

Course Taught

I teach Introduction to Culinary Arts at Wakeland High School, on "A day" I have classes 2nd, 3rd, and 4th period and on "B day" I teach the class 1st, 2nd, and 3rd period.

I have also taught Child Development, Preparation for Parenting, ESTA, Personal Family Development, Interior Design, Individual Family Life and Apparel.

Activities/Hobbies

- Proud wife and mom of three children
- My hobbies include football, cooking, reading, and quilting
- I am actively involved in the sports booster clubs where my children attend school
